THE NYPD RUNNING CLUB PRESENTS THE

7th Annual

NYPD MEMORIAL

5K Run

SUNDAY, MAY 18, 2008 • 10:13 AM

CORNER OF LIBERTY STREET & WEST STREET, NEW YORK, N.Y.

This race is run in honor of all NYPD Officers who have been killed in the line of duty. There are more than 700 NYPD heroes whose names have been etched into the granite New York City Police Memorial Wall. We gather yearly to honor these brave men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice. After a short prayer at the wall participants run/walk a 5K (3.1 miles), followed by a great barbeque, Kids Fun Run and celebration.

This year, for the first time, runners will be able to designate which NYPD hero they are running in memory of. When filling out the application select a hero you are running in memory of and their name will be displayed on your running bib. Visit our online registration page to see a list of every hero being honored. Please come out with family and friends so we can make sure each and every one of our lost heroes are honored on a runners bib.
